CHORLEY REMEMBERS

We are staging a fundraising event at St. Michael's High School in Chorley on the 25th May, in aid of the appeal to place the names of the fallen from Chorley on the town's war memorial. We hope to have the project completed by Remembrance Sunday.

Chorley based 'Theatre in Education' company, Top Box Productions, have kindly offered to stage their play about the First World War as a fundraiser. Entitled "A CALL TO ARMS", it is based on the Chorley Pals - from them volunteering in 1914 to the aftermath of the battle of the Somme in 1916. Originally for High School students studying history at GCSE, the play has been adapted for a wider audience and lasts about an hour, being delivered in front of simple but ever-changing backcloths.

Please send me ticket(s) for the event on the 25th May, as follows:

..... @ £6 (adults) @ £3.00 (Senior Citizens & Students) and I enclose a cheque for £

Cheques should be made payable to "Chorley Remembers Appeal Fund".
